

PT MONTHLY PROGRESS REPORT

Patient: Patient, R

Chart Number

9907

Test	Limits	07/07/2008	07/07/2008	This Month's Message
Urea Reduction %	65-90	82	82	Your Urea Reduction Ratio is within acceptable range. However the state average is greater than 73% and the higher the number the healthier for your body.
Urea Nitrogen, Serum (BUN)	40-90	24	24	Your BUN is low. This may mean you are not eating enough meat and protein.
Albumin	3.5-5	4.8	4.8	Your body protein is within normal ranges. GOOD JOB! This means you are eating enough protein in your diet.
Potassium, Serum	3.5-5.5	5.0	5.0	Your potassium level is within limits for a dialysis patient. Good Job!
Calcium	8.4-9.5	9.5	9.5	Your calcium is within normal range for a dialysis patient. Good Job. Keep eating the same diet and taking your binders.
KT/V	<1.25	0.46	0.46	Your number is low. This means that your blood is not getting cleaned enough.
Phosphorus	3.5-5.5	4.9	4.9	Good Job!! Continue no more than one high phosphorus food per day and take your binders with meals.
CA Phos Product	<55	46.6	46.6	This is your calcium multiplied times your phosphorus and is within acceptable limits. Good job controlling your phosphorus.
Glucose, Serum	70-200	98	98	Your blood sugar is within the acceptable range.
Cholesterol	130-200	135	135	Your cholesterol is within the acceptable range.
Hemoglobin	11-13	13.5	13.5	Your Hemoglobin is on the high side. The doctor will adjust your EPO dose as 1